

- Exhibit A – Screenshots of burner accounts posting the case number (e.g., “Here’s the court case if you want the facts 6:25-cv-01272”). These posts encourage the public to monitor Defendants and create the false impression the Court has already ruled.

- Exhibit B – Screenshots of disparaging comments about Defendant Askew’s work (e.g., “Bre isn’t original” and “These are so cute... glad you’re doing more than basic shapes”), including from an account followed by Elegance & Geekery and what appears to be the Plaintiff’s relatives. This ties the harassment to Plaintiff’s circle.

- Exhibit C – Defendant Askew’s social media posts noting she had to delay a product release and describing this summer as “one of the most traumatizing,” reflecting the emotional toll.

despite this being one of my most traumatizing summers, I've created a lot of beautiful projects I can't wait for the world to see!!

You guys know I'm a single-operated business right now. I have a lot on my plate so I have to push my drop date back at least a week. :(
On top of that, I'm shipping out my campaign
rewards from earlier this year.
That said — I am so excited, I truly think this release tops everything I've ever done! 😍 (additional note) All hair clique sizes will be dropping this fall ❤️

- Exhibit D – Defendant Boyce’s public post: “There is a person monitoring my social media and trying to twist everything I say into something to have me arrested...” which shows how Plaintiff’s monitoring is being weaponized against her lawful speech.

There is a person monitoring my social media,
and trying to twist everything that I say into something to have me arrested.

I am NOT going to live my life like that and I'm not going to be bullied. Leave me alone. I'm not going to say it again. 🤡
